Coming Events

Keep it clean

The Ladies Altar Society is asking for donations for the Food Pantry. Cleaning items are in demand at the Pantry since these essentials are not covered by food stamps.

The months of June and July we will be concentrating on hand soap and shampoo.

Bring a small donation each week. There will be a bucket in the vestibule of the church. Deposit bars of soap, shampoo or any other cleaning product in the tub. Let's fill-er-up! But remember.....Keep it Clean!

Monastery visit

Some years back, our parish, our parish made a pilgrimage to the monastery of St. Nektarios in Roscoe,, NY, which is about 2 1/4 hours from here. I am trying to find out if there is enough interest in going again, in order to plan a visit this Summer.

Saint Nektarios Monastery was founded and established in January 1999 by tElder Ephraim with the blessing of the Greek Orthodox Diocese of America. The property began life as a conference center an a Pro shop before it was purchased by the Archdiocese. It is an amazing place that has continued to grow over the years, and extends its hospitality to those who need to pause and take a rest from the World.

The monastery is a very peaceful and beautiful place, with a book shop with lots of land to roam to reflect on our lives, refreshing ourselves , strengthening our Spiritual life.

The dates being considered are July 15, 2017 or August 12, 2017. Please see Joyce Merletti and tell her which date you prefer so arrangements can be made with the Monastery.

Gospel and Epistle Readings

Gospel Reading

4th Sunday of Matthew

The Reading is from Matthew 8:5-13

At that time, as Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, beseeching him and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, in terrible distress." And he said to him, "I will come and heal him." But the centurion answered him, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and he does it." When Jesus heard him, he marveled, and said to those who followed him, "Truly, I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such faith. I tell you, many will come from east and west and sit at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, while the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth." And to the centurion Jesus said, "Go; be it done for you as you have believed." And the servant was healed at that very moment.

Saints and Feasts

July 02

Juvenal, Patriarch of Jerusalem

July 02

Juvenal the Protomartyr of America & Alaska

Saint Juvenal was (together with Saint Herman; see Dec. 12) a member of the first mission sent from Russia to proclaim the Gospel in the New World. He was a priest-monk, and a zealous follower of the Apostles, and baptized hundreds of the natives of Alaska. He was martyred by enraged pagans in 1796.

Wisdom of the Fathers

Let us hearken, as many as are to receive Christ: for it is possible to receive Him even now. Let us hearken, and emulate, and receive Him with as great zeal; for indeed, when you receive a poor man who is hungry and naked, you have received and cherished Him.

St. John Chrysostom

Homily 26 on Matthew 8, 4th Century

Hymns of the Day

Resurrectional Apolytikion in the Third Tone

Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad!* For the Lord has shown strength with His arm,* trampling down death by death, He has become the first-born of the dead.* He has delivered us from the depths of the realm of death,* and has given great mercy to our souls.

Apolytikion for Robe of the Theotokos in the Plagal Fourth Tone

O Ever-Virgin Theotokos, shelter of mankind, thou hast bestowed upon thy people a mighty investure, even thine immaculate body's raiment and sash, which by thy seedless childbirth have remained incorrupt; for in thee nature and time are made new. Wherefore, we implore thee to grant peace to the world, and great mercy to our souls.
