MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day, originally called Decoration Day, is a day of remembrance for those who have died in service of the United States of America. Over two dozen cities and towns claim to be the birthplace of Memorial Day. While Waterloo N.Y. was officially declared the birthplace of Memorial Day by President Lyndon Johnson in May 1966, it's difficult to prove conclusively the origins of the day.

Regardless of the exact date or location of its origins, one thing is clear – Memorial Day was borne out of the Civil War and a desire to honor our dead. It was officially proclaimed on 5 May 1868 by General John Logan, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, in his General Order No. 11. “The 30th of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and whose bodies now lie in almost every city, village and hamlet churchyard in the land,” he proclaimed. The date of Decoration Day, as he called it, was chosen because it wasn't the anniversary of any particular battle.

On the first Decoration Day, General James Garfield made a speech at Arlington National Cemetery, and 5,000 participants decorated the graves of the 20,000 Union and Confederate soldiers buried there.

The first state to officially recognize the holiday was New York in 1873. By 1890 it was recognized by all of the northern states. The South refused to acknowledge the day, honoring their dead on separate days until after World War I (when the holiday changed from honoring just those who died fighting in the Civil War to honoring Americans who died fighting in any war).

It is now observed in almost every state on the last Monday in May with Congressional passage of the National Holiday Act of 1971 (P.L. 90 – 363). This helped ensure a three day weekend for Federal holidays, though several southern states have an additional separate day for honoring the Confederate war dead: January 19th in Texas; April 26th in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, and Mississippi; May 10th in South Carolina; and June 3rd (Jefferson Davis' birthday) in Louisiana and Tennessee.

The BIG DAY Arrives!

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Glory to Jesus Christ!

I'm not quite sure what to say, for today brings us to the day that we all knew was coming! That on this day we would be holding our last Divine Liturgy in our old church, holding our last luncheon in our hall. It is a day that we as a parish family say goodbye to a building that has served our needs for a 100+ years, where we worshiped God together, where we laughed together, and yes, where we cried together. What a history these 100+ years hold! Yes, it is sad day as we close these doors for the last time, but now is the time to move on and prepare for the next 100+ years.

Joy replaces the sadness as we build our new church, as we continue to meet for prayer, to worship God, to celebrate the Divine Liturgy and all the other services we got to know and love. We will continue to build upon the bonds of friendship, of love, that make us as a family, stronger as we transition from the OLD to the NEW.

Through the Summer we will hold our services in Immaculate Heart of Mary RC Church in Painted Post as our new building is readied for us to take occupancy.

I am most grateful to His Excellency, Bishop Salvatore Mantano, Bishop of Rochester, for giving his blessing to use Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, also to Deacon Dean Condon and All Saints Parish Administration for making Immaculate Heart's use a reality.

Our history with the All Saints community goes back many years. In fact, it goes back almost a 100 years. In our formative years, Saint Mary's RC Church, welcomed a young, and vibrant Saint Mary's Orthodox Church with extended arms and allowed us to use their facility to conduct our Liturgical services.

Although it is sad to say good-bye to Sunset Drive, we welcome the opportunity to secure a home on Canada Road that will allow us to serve the Corning area better, to spread the loving message of Jesus Christ for many years to come.

As Saint Mary's takes on a new life, our old home on Sunset also takes on a new life and character of its own. It becomes the home of Itsy Bitsy Inspirations Preschool. It is our fervent prayer that God watches over them and protects them for many, many years. We wish Steve and Hollie great success in their new home.

Father Dan

BIRTHDAY SUNDAY NEXT WEEK, where we celebrate the members of our parish celebrating a birthday that month. Please remember those less fortunate and bring a donation for our birthday bags to the Corning Community Food Pantry, such as cake mix or frosting. Please provide all donations to Millie Sosonka for assembly.
