Sunday, November 1

9:30am Divine Liturgy

21st SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Holy Fathers of the 7th Ecumenical Council of Nicea

Epistle: Hebrews 13:7-16

Gospel: John 17:1-13

Tone: 4

Liturgical Color: GOLD

O Christ our God You are above all praise, for You established our Fathers as lights to all the earth. You led us to the true faith through them. O Most Bountiful Lord, glory to You!

How the Son proceeds from the Father our words cannot express; but having two natures, He was born of a woman.

*We do not reject His icon when we behold
it, but in faith we venerate and honor it.
And the Church professes it as true belief
when she honors the icon of Christ's Incarnation.*

The God of gods, the Lord has spoken and summoned the earth, from the rising of the sun, to its setting.

FROM FATHER'S DESK

If you would like to meet with Father, please call him @607-962-5285 to arrange a time and place that is convenient to you.

VESPERS TIME CHANGE

It's that time of year again!

During the Fall and Winter months

Great Vespers/ Confessions and Holy Day Vespers will be served at:

4:00pm

Beginning

SATURDAY

NOVEMBER 7, 2015

Our weekly coffee social is a wonderful time for fellowship with our brothers and sisters in Christ. But it doesn't happen miraculously. Everyone's help is needed. Please sign up with a friend to host one week. Often there are plenty of snacks but no one to help clean up. It only takes a few minutes and helps make our parish the great place it is. Sign up is hanging outside the kitchen or see Pani Joan or Diane Rodrigues.

THE SEVENTH ECUMENICAL COUNCIL

Held in Nicea, Asia Minor in 787 under Empress Irene, with 367 Bishops in attendance.

It centered around the use of icons in the Church and the controversy between the iconoclasts and iconophiles. The Iconoclasts were suspicious of religious art; they demanded that the Church rid itself of such art and that it be destroyed or broken (as the term "iconoclast" implies).

THE SEVENTH ECUMENICAL COUNCIL

The iconophiles believed that icons served to preserve the doctrinal teachings of the Church; they considered icons to be man's dynamic way of expressing the divine through art and beauty. The Iconoclast controversy was a form of Monophysitism: distrust and downgrading of the human side.

"We define that the holy icons, whether in color, mosaic, or some other material, should be exhibited in the holy churches of God, on the sacred vessels and liturgical vestments, on the walls, furnishings, and in houses and along the roads, namely the icons of our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ, that of our Lady Theotokos, those of the venerable angels and those of saintly people. Whenever these representations are contemplated, they will cause those who look at them to commemorate and love their prototype. We define also that they should be kissed and that they are an object of veneration and honor, but not real worship, which is reserved for HIM Who is the subject of our faith and is proper for the divine nature, ... which is in effect transmitted to the prototype; he who venerates the icon, venerates in it the reality for which it stands."

The Ladies Altar Society is organizing an outing to the Clemens Center to see SILENT MOVIE.

We could go out to lunch after church and then to the show. If you are interested see Nancy Coons. Carpooling will be available.

SILENT MOVIE (1976) silent film with Theatre Organ Accompaniment by David Peckham

Sunday, November 8, 2015 at 3:00 p.m.

General Admission Tickets: $17.50 Adults/$8.75 Under 18

Mel Brooks, Marty Feldman and Dom DeLuise pay affectionate, hilarious tribute to Hollywood's Silent Era in this classic parody of the movie business.

Aspiring filmmakers Mel Funn (Mel Brooks), Marty Eggs and Dom Bell go to a financially troubled studio with an idea for a silent movie. In an effort to make the movie more marketable, they attempt to recruit a number of big name stars to appear, while the studio's creditors attempt to thwart them. The film contains only one word of dialogue, spoken by an unlikely source. Don't miss Silent Movie!

Is playing at the Clemens Center in January. It is a fun musical about the trials and triumphs of Joseph, Israel's favorite son. If we can get 10 or more people interested tickets will be about $25. The dates of the show are Wednesday Jan. 20 or Thursday Jan. 21 at 7:30 pm. Carpooling will be available.

If you would like to attend, you must see Nancy Coons by Sunday Nov. 1

WE'RE BUSY BAKING FOR THE HOLIDAY BAKE SALE!

Monetary donations would be helpful to purchase supplies for this sale!. If you would like to donate, please see Carole Herrlich or Diane Rodrigues.

Please see Carole Herrlich or Nancy Gabel to place your advanced order by NOVEMBER 9!

A message fro the Corning Community Food Bank....It is now time for the Corning Community Food Pantry to begin the application process for our Thanksgiving Basket Distribution on Saturday, November 21, 2015. This is an annual project of Corning Community Food Pantry and each year our clients look to us for a healthy nutritious holiday basket. If you wish to make a monetary contribution to ensure the continuation of this project, send a check to CCFP, PO Box 1255, Corning, NY 14830.

Pill Bottle Collection Status

This new philanthropic project is off to a great start. Over 175 bottles have been collected for the safe distribution of medicines in developing countries. Thank you for all your efforts.

To improve the success of the program, please keep these things in mind:

Bottles must be empty, clean and unlabeled.

Include a quarter for each bottle to help with the shipping costs. There will be a canister next to the collection basket for your spare change. Every little bit helps.

Glass bottles will no longer be accepted, due to the high cost of shipping them. Please recycle glass bottles locally.

If you have questions, please see Carol Telehany.

THANK YOU!

Thank you all for creating such a terrific Summer Toy Basket for our Spring Raffle.

“SQUEAKY CLEAN” is our next basket. Each parish family is asked to donate a bar of luxury soap. Craft fairs offer numerous kinds of homemade soaps as well as different area shops. We’ll be collecting for this basket until Thanksgiving.

Thank you for giving us a “jump” on this project!
