+FATHER RASTKO TRBUHOVICH

Father Rastko Trbuhovich longtime Pastor of Saint Stephen Serbian Orthodox Church in Lackawanna, NY fell asleep in the Lord Wednesday in Buffalo General Hospital in Buffalo, NY.

Some of us remember visiting with Father Rastko attending Great Vespers and viewing the beautiful and amazing Holy Icons that adorned St. Stephen's.

May our Lord God remember His servant, the Priest Rastko in His kingdom and his memory be eternal! Vichnaja Pamjat!

BIRTHDAY SUNDAY TODAY, where we celebrate the members of our parish celebrating a birthday that month.

Please remember those less fortunate and bring a donation for our birthday bags to the Corning Community Food Pantry, such as cake mix or frosting. Please provide all donations to Millie Sosonka for assembly.

Our weekly coffee social is a wonderful time for fellowship with our brothers and sisters in Christ. But it doesn't happen miraculously. Everyone's help is needed. Please sign up with a friend to host one week. Often there are plenty of snacks but no one to help clean up. It only takes a few minutes and helps make our parish the great place it is. Sign up is hanging outside the kitchen or see Pani Joan or Diane Rodrigues.

Pill Bottle Collection Status

This new philanthropic project is off to a great start. Over 175 bottles have been collected for the safe distribution of medicines in developing countries. Thank you for all your efforts.

To improve the success of the program, please keep these things in mind:

Bottles must be empty, clean and unlabeled. It is your responsibility to protect your private information, so if you cannot remove the label, please black out any personal information. Include a quarter for each bottle to help with the shipping costs. There will be a canister next to the collection basket for your spare change. Every little bit helps.

Glass bottles will no longer be accepted, due to the high cost of shipping them. Please recycle glass bottles locally.

If you have questions, please see Carol Telehany.

GOD & MAN....The Word was with God in the beginning, and the Man was subject of the pain of death. The human nature wasn't eternal, and the divine nature wasn't mortal. All His other attributes are considered in the same way. For it wasn't the human nature that raised up Lazarus, nor was it the power that can't suffer who wept for him while he lay in the grave. The tears came from the Man, but the life came from the true life. It wasn't the human nature that fed the thousands, nor was it all powerful strength that hurried to the fig tree. Who was weary from the journey, and who made the world exist by His word? What is the brightness of the glory, and what was pierced with the nails? What body was beaten during Passion Week, and what body is externally glorified? This much is clear: that the blows belong to the servant who was the Lord, and honor belongs to the Lord who was a servant. As a result, Christ's natures are unified and their respective attributes belong to both natures. Just as the Lord received the scars of the servant, the servant is glorified with the honor of the Lord. For this is why the cross is called the cross of the Lord of glory, and why every tongue confesses that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Saint Gregory of Nyssa

Saint Gregory was born in the city of Caesarea near the middle of the fourth century. He was given a comprehensive education by his brother Basil and his sister Macrina. His first profession the Christian faith came from a vision in which the martyrs of the church appeared to him, chided him for his indifference to the faith, and beat him with rods. Gregory became a thetoreician but in 371 was forced by his brother to become Bishop of Nyssa, where he remained until removed in 376. His most important contribution to the Christian faith is the twelve-book Against Eunomius (an Arian), in addition to his treatises on such doctrines as the Trinity, the Resurrection, and Jesus' baptism.
